REBEL ARMY IN JIMENEZ SECTOR IS ANNIHILATED

Fleeing Insurgents Fall Into Trap Set By Federal Troops
LOSE 2,000 MEN IN TWO-DAY BATTLE
Airplanes, Artillery Take Part In Destruction Of Army

BULLETIN
Naco, Ariz., April 4.—The pilot and a mechanic on a Federal bombing plane were killed today when Rebel anti-aircraft fire brought the plane down over the flying over Rebel troops south of Naco, Sonora.

The plane was seen flying over the Rebel troops dropping bombs when suddenly there was a terrific explosion in mid air. The demolished plane fell in a black cloud of smoke.

Mexico City, April 4.—The battered remnants of the once proud Rebel army of Gen. J. Gonzalo Escobar today retreated into the hills south of La Reforma, Chihuahua, after suffering almost complete annihilation at the hands of Gen. J. Andres Almazan's federal army in one of the bloodiest battles of the present revolution.

The Rebels fell into a Federal trap at La Reforma, 12 miles north of Jimenez.

Escavating Jimenez after suffering losses estimated at 2,000 in the two day battle there, what was left of their original army of 6,000 retreated to La Reforma.

There they found that the railway bridge had been burned down the day before by Federal cavalry. While attempting to repair the bridge, pursuing Federal cavalry led by Gen. Anacleto Lopez fell upon them and the battle began.

Rebels Dig Trenches
The Rebels hastily dug in behind entrenchments and began the most heroic stand yet seen in this revolution. Federal armor flew over their head dropping destructive bombs. Then the Federal infantry came up to reinforce the attacking cavalry.

Finally the Rebels brought their artillery into play.

Protected by a heavy artillery barrage, the Federal infantry charged time and again. The casualties were heavy on both sides. Quarter was neither asked nor given. It was a fight to a finish.

Prosecution Of Congressman On Dry Charges Now Unlikely

Evidence Indicates Solon Did Bring Liquor Into Country

New York, April 4.—Prosecution of William M. Morgan, the "bone dry" congressman from Ohio accused of violating the dry law, appeared to be unlikely, although testimony developed in United States Atty. Charles H. Tuttle's investigation was to the effect that Morgan did bring in four bottles of liquor when he landed at this port from Panama on March 25.

The alleged contraband, customs inspector, Louis E. Crawford, told Tuttle, Morgan informed him, was intended for his wife's father, and the congressman claimed "free entry" of his baggage into this port.

The liquor consisted of two bottles of champagne and two bottles of whiskey.

Although Morgan may escape prosecution, the spectacular incident in which he is playing the leading role, may have one far-reaching effect, swift action to regulate the "free entry" privileges of congressmen was foreseen as a result of the investigation.

There will be no federal grand jury action, it was asserted by Tuttle, although he admitted the case is "not finally closed." Tuttle intimated, however, that prosecution was unlikely for two reasons:

1.—Morgan, could, if he wished, claim immunity if asked to testify before the grand jury.

2.—Under the federal law a wife cannot testify against her husband in a criminal proceeding.

Morgan, of course, could waive immunity and personally appear before the grand jury to vindicate himself. He has steadfastly declared, in statements given out in Washington, that he did not bring any liquor into port.

But Inspector Crawford flatly contradicts this. He testified that Morgan not only brought liquor in but threatened to "raise hell in Washington" when free entry was at first refused him. It was on Morgan's claim that he had been to Panama on "official government business" that free entry was granted.

The testimony of the customs men alleged also that Morgan had refused to open his hand baggage or that of his wife, and had in fact threatened to "raise hell in Washington" when free entry was at first refused him. It was on Morgan's claim that he had been to Panama on "official government business" that free entry was granted.

Among the bills approved by the senate are: The Abele bill creating a commission comprising the governor and exservice members of the

Mrs. Hoover Sets New Precedent

Washington, April 4.—Another Washington precedent was knocked galley-west today when Mrs. Herbert Hoover got under the wheel of her own private automobile and took several women companions for a ride in her new car, unaccompanied by chauffeur or the usual secret service operative.

Old Washingtonians could not remember when the wife of a president drove her own equipage. Certainly none has ever driven her own automobile about the streets of the capital.

The new car is a dark sedan and has no distinctive markings or number plate. Mrs. Hoover plans to make extensive use of it.

There was sorrow in the air and a deep sadness visible on every face as France's sons, from the humblest to the most distinguished, paid a final tribute to the man whom she regarded almost as a son.

STRUCK ON HEAD, THROWN IN LAKE, BUT SAVES SELF

Wife, Roomer, Held On Charge of Assault To Kill

CLAIM MAN TELLS OF CRIME ACT

Victim Makes Charges While In Akron Hospital

Ravenna, O., April 4.—Portage county authorities moved swiftly today in the case of Mrs. Horace Bryant, 24, Akron, and Maynard Nichols, 23, both of whom are charged with assault with intent to kill the woman's husband, late Sunday night.

Nichols and Mrs. Bryant, after being indicted by the county grand jury last night, were to be arraigned today this afternoon. Prosecutor Everett Foote says they have confessed plotting to murder Bryant, who is 31, and Nichols admits, according to the prosecutor, that he beat the husband into unconsciousness and threw him into Wingfoot lake, thinking he was dead.

Bryant, who is recovering in an Akron hospital, related that the icy waters of the lake revived him and he succeeded in crawling ashore.

Had Love Affair

Mrs. Bryant and Nichols carried on a clandestine love affair while he was a roomer in the Bryant home at Akron, according to the reported confession. Fearing the husband might suspect they planned to kill him, collect the $1,500 insurance and marry, the prosecutor charges.

Nichols asked Mr. and Mrs. Bryant to go with him for an automobile ride Sunday night and they accepted, taking their six-year-old daughter, Claudine, along, according to the story.

At Wingfoot lake, in Portage county near here, Mrs. Bryant and the child left the automobile and after they had been gone a short time Nichols struck Bryant on the head with a piece of iron, according to his alleged confession.

He then dragged the insensible man from the automobile, beat him and twisted his head in an effort to break his neck. Prosecutor Foote charges. Believing his victim dead, he threw him into the lake, it is charged.

Water Revives Man

Bryant says he believes his body caught on some submerged object and he revived sufficiently to reach safety. He was brought to Akron where he told his story to police in the hospital.

Nichols and Mrs. Bryant were both arrested yesterday and denied their guilt. Later, however, Nichols' mother, Mrs. Flossie Harvey, visited him and urged him to tell the truth.

TRANSCONTINENTAL AIR SERVICE

From Washington comes the announcement that the air mail service between the Atlantic and the Pacific will be doubled within the next thirty days by cutting twelve hours from the present time schedule and making possible the delivery of mail on the Pacific coast the second morning out from New York.

The cut in time is to be made possible by the inauguration of a new night service over the entire 2,731 miles of airways connecting New York with San Francisco and Los Angeles, which will eliminate the present overnight layovers of incoming mail at both ends of the transcontinental route, and the speeding up of mail deliveries at each terminal.

At present there is a double service in operation between New York and Lincoln, Nebraska. The extension of the service to the Pacific coast will be made possible by the completion of the new lighted airway over the western mountain section of the across-the-continent route between Salt Lake City and San Francisco.

Under schedules soon to be put into effect mail deposited in New York as late as 7 o'clock in the evening will be scheduled to arrive in San Francisco or Los Angeles at 4:30 o'clock and 5 o'clock the second morning in time for the regular delivery. The same schedules will apply to eastbound mail. New York mail now reaches the Pacific coast the second night, but is not delivered until the third morning, unless special delivery service is paid for.

The new service, according to the postoffice department's announcement, is not to be merely supplementary to the day service, but is to be, in fact, the main service, carrying the greater volume of air mail between the two coasts. The department's announcement carries the further information that the new service will bring points as far west as North Platte, Nebraska, within one day's delivery time of New York. Mail for Cheyenne, Wyoming, leaving New York Monday night, will reach that point before dark the following day and will be subject to special delivery that evening. Mail from San Francisco will arrive in Chicago by 6 p. m., or in St. Louis by 4:30 p. m., for special delivery that evening.

And thus a service which, as it is, has aroused the wonder and admiration of the world, is to be still further improved and made markedly more efficient. It seems hardly possible of belief—it would have been, ten years ago, next to impossible of belief—that such a service could be developed in so short a period of time. Nor could it have been without the initiative, energy and perseverance which have marked the development of American enterprises in recent years.

What Others Say

STILL AT IT

Communist and pacifist influences carelessly are at it to break down the defensive agencies of this country. Just now it is the "Illinois Committee on Militarism in Education" that is leveling a renewed attack on the reserve officers' training camp of the University of Illinois and the Chicago high school system. This committee avers that it has spent a year in gathering evidence to build a case against the military training system set forth in our national defense act, which evidence is to be incorporated in pamphlet form, to be distributed broadcast.

The University of Illinois is understood to be a stronghold of the Americanism, under loyal and able educational leadership. It is on record in support of the continuance of the R. O. T. C. at the university.

This is one of the ways in which the pacifists and the radicals work their schemes. Anything to weaken or destroy any of the elements in our national defense, in their eyes, is legitimate and proper. They deal in innuendo, half-truths and open misrepresentation in order to gain their subversive ends. They are in no sense true Americans. They are blinded by a fanatical prejudice. They hate so-called militarism in the schools because they see in it a factor antagonistic to the development of their perverted imaginations. They want to take from the young men in our schools and colleges the knowledge and discipline which would fit them to protect their country and themselves in case of war emergency. They want to destroy ability, clean thinking and resourcefulness on the part of the young men of America to take command in seasons of emergency and know what to do for themselves and for the country dependent upon them.

This blatant committee, to which reference here is made, will not go far in this attack upon splendid institutions in the state of Illinois, but what they are attempting to do should be warning to loyal citizens throughout the union—Cincinnati Enquirer.

READ THE WANT COLUMNS

WHAT TO DO FOR AN UNCONSCIOUS PERSON

BY ROYAL S. COPELAND, M. D.
(United States Senator from New York)

DR. COPELAND

At some time or other you may be called upon to give first aid to a person who is having a fit or has fallen in a faint. What are you to do? You feel you must do something, but just what is it?

There are several causes for loss of consciousness. The most common is an ordinary "fainting spell."

Lots of people have a tendency to faint and do so on the slightest provocation. More than any similar trouble, this is the one you are likely to witness.

In apoplexy the victim may fall to the ground absolutely unconscious. This sounds like a faint, doesn't it? But, as I shall show you shortly, it is not difficult to recognize the difference.

There is also the loss of consciousness due to poisoning. This may be caused by a poison taken into the stomach, or it may come from the absorption of poisons generated within the body. Alcohol is a common example of the one, and what the doctors call "uremic poisoning" is a form of the other type.

How are you to tell whether the case is a fainting spell or is due to apoplexy? If you will consider the cause of each there will be no difficulty.

Fainting is due to the effects of a sudden emotion or other cause upon the action of the heart. It is slowed up in its activity. It does not beat with sufficient force to send the blood through the body and into the brain. The skin is blanched and cold. The face is like wax. There is a dead look, the pulse is so faint it cannot be felt and the breathing is very, very slow.

In apoplexy and in the more common poisonings, the brain is filled with blood. The face is flushed almost purple in color, perhaps. The breathing is noisy, possibly snoring in its nature. The pulse is slow and full.

Have I told you enough to make clear what you should do? Since there is not enough blood in the brain, when the patient is in a faint, your effort should be to help Nature to supply that vital organ. To do this you must call upon gravity to help.

Place the patient on the floor or a sofa. Raise the legs and hips. Keep the head very low and the feet high. In this position the blood naturally gravitates to the brain.

Just exactly the opposite is the treatment to give the person who has a flushed face and congestion of the brain. It should be your effort to get the blood out of the head.

Raise the head, shoulders and upper part of the body. Keep the hips and the legs low. Call on gravity here, but with the idea of draining the blood from the brain.

The person in a faint is cold and clammy. Cover him up, but permit lots of fresh air to reach his face.

Never try to pour whiskey or other stimulant down the throat of an unconscious person. You may actually drown him, by getting the liquid into the lungs instead of the stomach.

If there is not a total loss of consciousness, a fainting person will be benefited by a stimulant. But in its absence the simple things I have suggested will be helpful always and never harmful.

This is all the layman can do to advantage. You will send somebody for the doctor who will arrive in time to give appropriate medical treatment.

MEXICO

Almazan, impressed by the defense of the Rebels, sent a courier back from the front lines to the field radio with the following laconic message for Gen. Plutarco Calles, generalissimo of all the Federal forces whose headquarters are at Bermejillo:

"The Rebels are fighting like Mexicans."

The battle waxed furiously. Machine guns on both sides took a heavy toll but the bombs from above soon began to show great effectiveness. From the Federal side, the Rebel dead could be seen lying upon the ground in heaps.

Six Rebel troops trains and a great quantity of supplies and ammunition were captured. Five hundred Rebel wounded were given immediate medical attention by the Federals. Requests for additional medical supplies to treat those wounded in the carnage were sent to this city.

The Federal army of 12,000 outnumbered the Rebels more than two to one. The latter's losses were terrific. It is believed more than 4,000 Rebels were killed, wounded or captured in the battles of Jimenez and La Reforma but no estimates have been made by the government as yet.

May End Revolution

clared that after today the Rebels would be unable to put a sufficiently strong force in the field anywhere to present formidable opposition to the government forces.

Gen. Calles sent a telegram to President Portes Gil congratulating him upon the victory and describing the battle.

"The decisive battle which began at Corralitos on March 31 and continued at Jimenez, ended yesterday at La Reforma with a complete victory for the government," the telegram stated.

"The battle was simply butchery. The Rebel infantry fought heroically. All of those who did not die, were taken prisoners. It was one of the most wonderful actions in the history of Mexican Revolutionary warfare."

PERJURY FACES DRY INFORMER

Man Who Filed Papers
In De King Case
Reappears

Aurora, Ill., Apr. 4.—Eugene Boyd Fairchild, dry informer, whose admitted false affidavit describing the purchase of liquor from Mrs. Lillian DeKing led to her death in a dry raid on her home, was back in Aurora today where he faces arrest on a perjury charge.

Fairchild, who "disappeared" shortly before the perjury warrant was issued on his own admissions during the inquest at Geneva, was found in Springfield, Ill., by a representative of International News Service after officials of Kane county had been unable to locate him.

The dry sleuth returned voluntarily to Kane county, stating he had not "run away," and that he was anxious to tell his side of the story.

Fairchild bitterly denounced State's Attorney George Carbury of Kane county and his chief prohibition investigator Walter Millar. He declared Millar gave him $15 and told him to "get out of town and stay out for a while."

Millar today admitted he gave Fairchild the money, but denied that he told him to leave town. He said Fairchild said he was "broke" but did not say what he wanted the money for.

"I am not fleeing justice," Fairchild told the reporter who located him. "I left Geneva hours before that warrant charging me with perjury was issued. I came to Springfield to see my lawyer. I'm not trying to hide. I'm sick and tired of being pushed around by Carbury and Millar. They've been making me the goat and I'm just beginning to wake up."

STOP THE FAT AND GET THIN

The way to reduction is to stop the formation of fat. Modern science has found that way—by turning your food into fuel and energy—by supplying a natural element that helps do that. It is much better than starvation. That modern, scientific method is embodied in Marmola prescription tablets. People have used them for 20 years—millions of boxes of them. Now the results in slender figures, new beauty and vitality, are seen everywhere.

Each box of Marmola contains the formula, also the scientific reasons for results. So you know the effects are beneficial, and why they all occur. Learn what so many have learned in 20 years about it. Do it now. Ask your druggist for a $1 box of Marmola and learn what it means to you.

Don't risk Baby's health by skimping on ICE

WHAT possession is more priceless—what responsibility greater—than a brand new baby?

This message is being written to the parents of the more than three million babies that have arrived in this country within the last two years; and also to the parents of the approximately thirty million other children under the age of fourteen.

First two years important
Child mortality is highest in the earliest years. Then is when foods need to be most carefully selected—and most zealously protected. Then is when ice is most vitally needed—and most fully appreciated for its life-preserving, strength-building value.

Hot weather, so generally dreaded by fond parents, need have no terror for the child that is well nourished and fortified in advance.

Start now for a healthful summer

Baby authorities are in quite thorough agreement that there is nothing more essential than pure, fresh, wholesome milk in building strong, healthy young bodies. And good refrigeration, of course, is a most valuable factor in keeping milk in prime condition, right up to the moment of feeding. Ice has made a great reduction in the mortality of babies.

The trifling cost of ice is a small charge to pay to safeguard

Baby's health. And there is no time better than the present to obtain the necessary protection.

Ice-freshened food

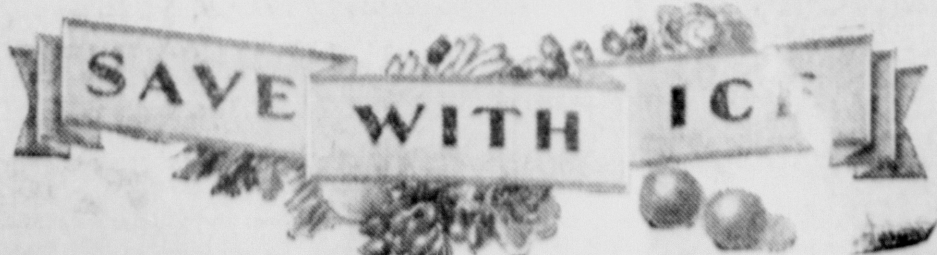

Pure foods, so essential to children's health, should be kept in air that is pure as well as cold. The air in a good ice refrigerator is automatically and continuously cleaned and cooled. And when foods are properly placed in a good ice refrigerator, there is no interchange of flavors or odors. They retain their natural juices, their full flavors, their most nutritive food values.

A good Ice Refrigerator pays for itself

Refrigeration can be no better than the refrigerator itself. A good ice refrigerator is a good investment, whether there are children in the family or not. It quickly pays its cost in the food spoilage it prevents. And it pays further big dividends by giving you better tasting meals for years to come. If you don't know where to get a good refrigerator, ask us.

KIWANIS WOMEN ENTERTAIN MEN

Surprise Program Given
As Leetonia Men Visit
Washingtonville

Leetonia, April 4.—The Leetonia Kiwanis club went to Washingtonville on Tuesday evening where the members of the Methodist church served the dinner in the Methodist church.

Just before the dinner was served the wives and daughters of the Kiwanis members arrived on the scene to a surprise to the club. The company present numbered 92.

Following the dinner a clever program was put on by the women, some of those on the program representing Kiwanis members in a very realistic manner.

Mrs. H. F. Paisley represented the president, C. S. Anglenmyer, and presented in an able manner. Mrs. H. C. Hart represented the secretary, Mrs. S. Hall, while Mrs. Hall represented T. B. Cope.

The program consisted of a reading, "Thyself," by Miss Katharine, Mrs. Brillhart and Mrs. Cope, their representation of the Kiwanis song leaders, Mr. Hall and Mrs. Cope sang "Let Me Call You Sweetheart."

Woman Makes Speech
An address "Ideals of Kiwanis" was given by Mrs. Lester Redfoot. She represented the Rev. Dr. H. C. Hart and it was a very clever address.

The Kiwanis club has what they have named "the Red Lantern quartet" consisting of S. R. Cunningham, D. W. Hasbrouck, Dr. P. H. Beaver and William Andler. The women also had their "Red Lantern quartet" with Mrs. Ross Mellinger as Mr. Cunningham; Mrs. William Ward as Mr. Hasbrouck; Miss Alta Hileman as Dr. Beaver, and Mrs. Warren Weikart as William Andler.

Miss Lena Jane Bellhart gave a reading, "Naughty Zill," and a debate was held on the subject, "Men's Ideas on Cleaning House," by Mrs. T. B. Cope, representing Conrad Berg, Mrs. Weikart as William Andler, Mrs. Redfoot as Dr. Brillhart and Mrs. Clark Marshall representing F. W. Mossman.

Suggest Improvements
Conrad Berg is chairman of the public affairs committee and very much interested in all civic improvements of the village. Mrs. Cope as his representative gave a number of improvements for the help of the village. Among which was an air port.

When the secretary, represented by Mrs. Brillhart, was called upon for any communications she read a fictitious invitation from "Pumpkin Center" to the club to be present at one of their Kiwanis meetings.

COURT NEWS

Non-Support Charge Filed Against Man

Lisbon, April 4.—Bernard Doran of East Palestine, ordered by the court some time ago to pay a stated amount to Laura Grimm for the support of her 3-year-old son Hal, has failed in his payments, and the matter was reported to Judge Lodge Riddle.

On Wednesday Sheriff Barlow found Doran at work at a plant in Salem, and placing him under arrest brought him to the county jail. He was taken before Judge Riddle.

Guilty Plea Given In Liquor Trial

Lisbon, April 4.—Stephen K. Wagner, who has conducted a garage and filling station in the town of Columbiana for some time past was arrested recently by Sheriff W. J. Barlow and Deputy Elliott on a charge of trafficking in liquor in his place of business.

When he faced Judge Lodge Riddle in the probate court to plead to the charge, he denied it strenuously, until Wednesday when he appeared to stand trial.

He then decided to withdraw his former plea of not guilty, and pleaded guilty to the charge and is now arranging to settle a fine of $400 and costs in the case.

Until the full amount is paid.

Wagner will be under bond as during the time his case was pending.

Junk Dealer Fined In County Court

Lisbon, April 4.—Harry Prizant, a junk dealer in Columbiana, has failed to keep records as a junk dealer and report to the state as required by law, and he was placed under arrest by Sheriff W. J. Barlow and Deputy Gomer Lewis on Wednesday at his place of business and was brought into probate court to answer to the charge.

Prizant entered a plea of guilty to the charge against him, and paid a fine of $25 and costs in full settlement with the court.

Court Orders Sale

Lisbon, April 4.—Judge Riddle Wednesday issued an order of sale in the hearing of an application made by Ella Benner, guardian of Arthur Benner, an incompetent, for the sale of the undivided one-seventh interest in a farm in Knox township. The court found that it would be to the best interest of the plaintiff's ward to sell the real estate.

Motion Overruled

Judge W. F. Lones Wednesday heard a motion for a new trial in the case of Paul E. Myers, of Beloit, against the Famous Dairy company, of Salem, and overruled the same, rendering judgment on the verdict for $568.18. The defendant's attorney immediately gave notice of exceptions to the ruling of the court.

Myers brought the action against the Famous Dairy Co. asking damages in the sum of $16,550 for injuries sustained by him in an automobile accident on July 23, 1927. He was driving along the Salem-Albion road, when an agent of the defendant company, operating a truck for them, collided with him. He claimed that the injuries sustained by him were serious.

Mother Asks Divorce
Mrs. Margaret Hendershot of East Liverpool, married 24 years ago to Joseph Hendershot, has asked the court to give her a divorce. Her oldest child is now 23 years old, but she asks for the custody of the two youngest, aged 18 and 5 years, and also for alimony for their care, and also that Hendershot be enjoined from disposing of their household goods.

They were married, the wife says, at Adena, Jefferson county, in August, 1905, and have lived in East Liverpool since their marriage. The wife states that the defendant has been quarrelsome, and has failed to contribute toward the support of either her or the children, compelling her to work in a restaurant.

Keystone Of Infield May Be Out Long

Fate Raps Shotton Hard As He Attempts To Build Team

BY DAVIS J. WALSH

New York, April 4.—Fate, the daily old knitter who uses your money with boisterous generosity in betting against the cards you draw, seems to have draped himself over Phil Shotton's shoulder as he attempts to run a shoestring into a rope ladder with his Philadelphia ball club.

Today, Tommy Thevenow, keyman of Shotton's new infield, lies motionless in a Florida hospital, a result of an automobile accident, and they say he will be out at least a month and perhaps for the entire season.

If he is out a minute, it will be much too long, as far as the 1929 Phillies are concerned.

Apparently destined to make some of a play for sixth place this year, Thevenow's injuries mean that the Phillies virtually are committed to another season in the cellar.

As it was, they didn't have too much. As it is they probably have what they had before Shotton took the club over, i. e. and roughly speaking, nothing. Whatever the outfit expected in the way of minor successes was predicted on Thevenow's recovery from injuries sustained in 1927 and his work at Winter Haven this year had proved that he was an assured come back.

But this only begins to tell the story. For two years, Shotton has needed above all else, the following in the order of their importance: First, sympathy; second, pitchers. What happened? He developed the best collection of first class sympathy ever seen in a training camp.

Frank Ulrich was rated as one of the best young pitchers in the league when Shotton took the club. If it was to go anywhere in 1928, Ulrich was the lad who might have taken it there. He contracted a serious illness and was lost for the season. He was getting himself ready for the impending campaign when illness overtook him again and he died.

His passing left Ray Benge, a recruit developed by Shotton, as the best pitcher at the camp. Benge today has a loose bone in his elbow and his future on the ball field is far from assured.

The infield has been almost clamorous with its problems but Shotton seemed to have connived his way out of that pretty well, after he wrangled Thevenow from the Cardinals in an alleged $50,000 deal.

For Thevenow, almost useless in 1928, had played great ball at shortstop this spring and was working perfectly with Fresco Thompson at the axis of the infield. His only available successor is the none too eligible Barney Friberg.

Thompson, however, is Shotton's gold medal exhibit. The Pittsburgh club had this young man for a year and couldn't use him. McGraw had him overnight and didn't want him. So Shotton gladly traded a couple of passe veterans for the lad who was to become one of the ranking second basemen of the league.

Yes, he's no man's chump, this fellow Shotton, and little by little he is building his structure on a permanent, stable foundation. However, fate certainly is a swell demolisher.

SPORT BRIEFS

Massillon Prospects Poor

Massillon—Prospects for a winning track team at Massillon High school are reported poor for the coming season, only a few lettermen being available for competition. The season will open with a dual meet with New Philadelphia, April 20, and a week later, a triangular contest will be held with Akron West and Wooster as opponents.

Heilman At First Base

Beaumont, Texas — Harry Heilman, slugging right fielder for the Detroit Tigers, has been shifted back to first base, due to failure of other candidates for the position to show up to standard. Heilman's slugging ability has kept him in good standing on the team, despite better display of all-around ability by rookie outfielders.

Predicts Reds As Champs

Cincinnati — C. J. McDiarmid, president of the Cincinnati Reds, states emphatically that if the team

Columbus, April 4.—Strength of the Ohio State entry in the 1929 Western Conference baseball pennant chase will largely be determined by ability of the sophomore talent to crash through under fire, particularly in the pitching department. The first test comes today when Indiana opens the Big Ten season here. Ohio university will follow Saturday.

With William Sill, the only letterman returning to the box, considerable importance will be attached by Coach L. W. St. John and his assistants to the performances of Kermodie, Art Reed, and McLaughlin, all untried against Western Conference competition.

Lincoln "Boots" Cory, famous both for his work on the gridiron and as a boxer, will attempt to make a come-back this year, however. Cory has been followed by a jinx, since coming to the Buckeye institution from Iowa State two years ago, having failed at times, gets the pitching obtained last season, the coming world series will see it battling for the world's title with the American League winner. Pitching has always been the team's strongest forte, and with the addition of several strong batters, the all-around strength of the team has been improved, he states.

Everybody Cashed In Except Customers

Washington, April 4.—Everybody made money out of the recent Sharkey-Stribling "fight" at Miami Beach, Fla.—except the customers.

The treasury announced today that the government had collected $76,822 tax on the admissions. The total receipts were listed by the government as $318,500, with $9,682 paid admissions.

Glenna Out Ahead

Pinehurst, N. C., April 4.—Miss Glenna Collett, who has been enjoying a walkaway in the women's north and south golf championship here, meets sterner opposition today. Her opponent will be Miss Marion Turpie, the long-driving southern star who holds five titles.

In the other semi-final match Miss Virginia Van Wie of Chicago, clashes with Miss Edith Quier, of Reading, Pa.

Doings Down In Dixieland

Waco, Texas.—Arndt Jorgens, who slugged their way to a 12 to 6 decision over the Jacksonville tars yesterday, Del Bissonette snapped out of his batting slump and Nick Cullip swung a wicked willow in the clean-up position.

Manager Robinson says he will recommend Miami as a training site for the Robins next year. Incidentally, he has forbidden his hired hands to play poker.

Houston, Tex.—The Cubs were in Houston today after concluding spring training hostilities with Detroit at Beaumont yesterday. The Tigers won the final of the ten game series by the score of 5 to 3, leaving the series eight games to two in favor of Chicago. Heilmann's batting rampage caused the Bruins' downfall in the final.

Seminole, Oklahoma. Chicago White Sox and Des Moines were to resume their exhibition series here today. The Sox won the opener at McAlistier yesterday by the score of 19 to 7. Blackburne used a make-shift lineup. Willie Kamm having been left at Dallas with an infected foot and Art Shires having been suspended and sent home for insubordination.

New Orleans, April 4.—The Cleveland Indians, after defeating the New York Giants in an exhibition game yesterday, today were looking forward to their two game series with the Brooklyn Robins, Saturday and Sunday. Dick Porter, recruit outfielder, saved the game for the Indians when he knocked a triple in the ninth inning, with the score knotted at 4 all. Joe Sewell brought him in with a single, ending the game 5 to 4 for the Indians.

"Hey, Bill!

I don't know which cigarette this is, but it sure wins my vote!"

W. H. (Bill) McCord, of Post & McCord, steel contractors for New York's tallest skyscrapers, holds cigarette test with 94 workers.

Friend, you're smoking a certain cigarette today because you feel it's the best brand for you. And maybe you're right. But have you ever really checked up? Ever said to Old Man Habit, "Now you step out of the room. I'm going to smoke the four leading brands with brand names forgotten and just let my taste say which one is best."

The other day one of these tests was made among the huskiest fellows in New York... these two-fisted chaps who work with steel girders, sky-high above the city streets.

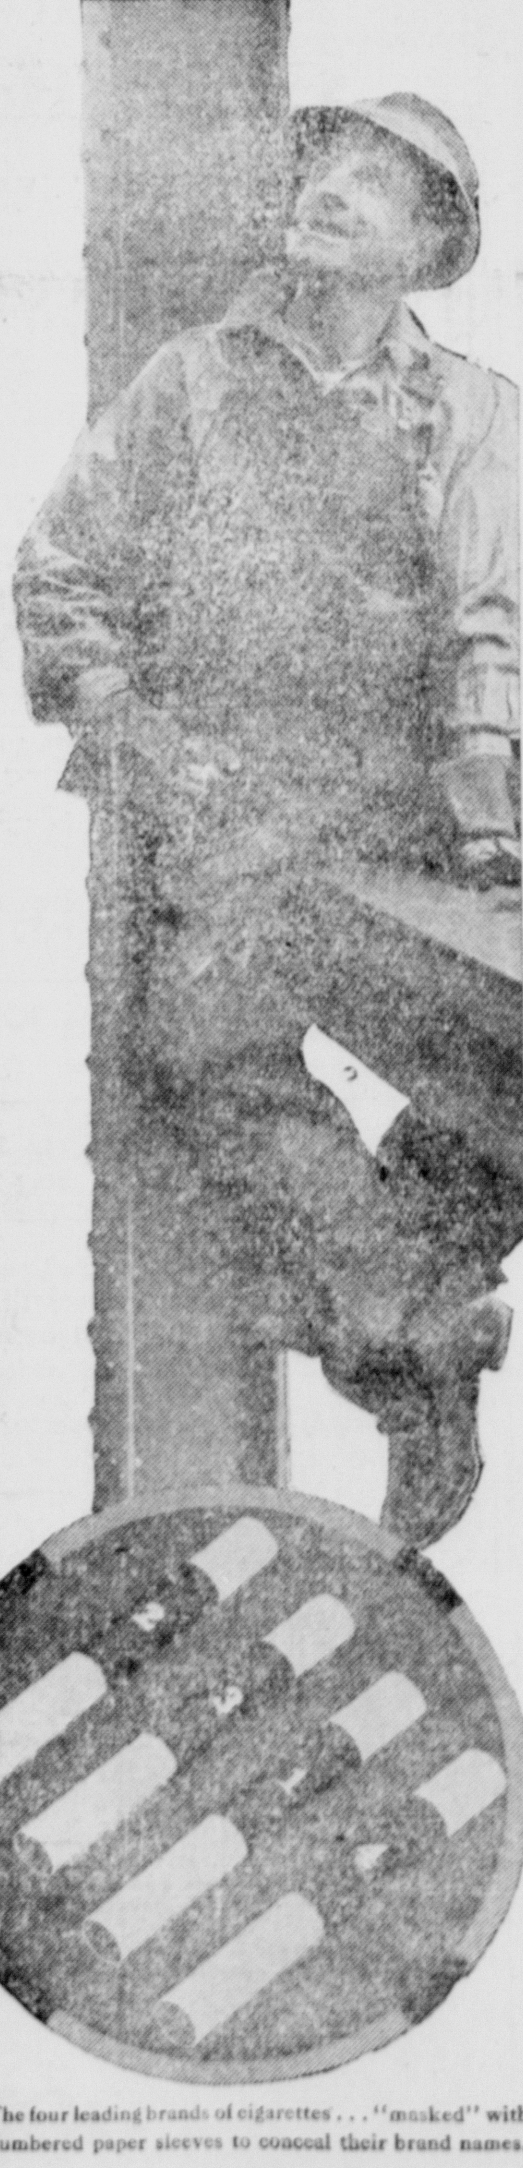

Their own boss, Mr. W. H. McCord, was referee and score keeper. Each cigarette was "masked" and numbered. All Mr. McCord said was, "Tell me which one you like the best."

The result speaks for itself! 69 out of 94 men voted for OLD GOLD!

OLD GOLDS win time after time in these public tests, because smokers find them smoother and better... with not a cough in a carload.

THE TREASURE OF THEM ALL

The four leading brands of cigarettes... "masked" with numbered paper sleeves to conceal their brand names.

SOHIO

ETHYL GASOLINE ANTI-KNOCK

SOHIO ENGINEERS employ advanced types of exact scientific instruments to serve as sentries over Sohio's high quality. Every fifteen seconds of the day and night automatic meters register the temperature of Sohio at eight different refinery points. Every hour a master meter records the uniformity of Sohio at 30 additional points.

Experts keep endless watch over these mechanical sentries. Sohio's high quality can be maintained only by keeping constant the tremendous temperature and pressure under which Sohio is manufactured. Sohio's experts stand ready, at the first warning from the mechanical sentries, to make any adjustments necessary to keep Sohio's quality uniform.

To the casual reader such extraordinary precautions might seem superfluous. To these we say this—put Sohio in your gasoline tank and learn for yourself that there IS a difference in gasoline. Learn for yourself what this constantly uniform high quality means to your motor. Sohio is sold at Red-White-and-Blue Standard service stations and dealers' pumps everywhere in Ohio.

RED CROWN GASOLINE
The same standards of care and uniformity also control the manufacture and distribution of Red Crown. We make Red Crown ourselves, in the same great plants that produce Sohio, because our customers are educated to a better grade of fuel than ordinary motor gasolines such as we might buy in the open market.

AT THE ROYAL
Sound and talking effects will make their initial appearance with screen pictures at the Royal theater tonight. The feature picture will be "What Price Gold," featuring Franklin Parnum, six acts of "talkie" vaudeville rounding out the bill for the evening.

Miss Virginia Mercereau, claimant to the world's wrestling championship, will make a personal appearance, together with a novelty screen act, which shows her performing in the ring.

The six acts of talking and sound vaudeville performances will bring noted radio broadcasting and stage artists to the screen.

"THE TEMPEST"
Rich in romance and action and with John Barrymore giving the finest performance of his illustrious screen career, "Tempest," a spectacular picture having as its background imperial and revolutionary Russia, is at the Grand.

"Tempest" is crammed with action, not to mention plenty of humor, from the opening of the story, when the star is a peasant officer plunged into the gay life of pre-war Russia, to the final scenes, when he rescues a princess, his sweetheart, from bloodthirsty hordes and escapes with her to a new life of happiness.

Those who like romance will revel in the love scenes played by the star and his beautiful leading lady, Camilla Horn, a blond who makes her American debut in "Tempest." Previously she was a European star, and her convincing portrayal of the princess opposite Barrymore stamps her as one of the year's outstanding finds.

Barrymore himself never had a more powerful role than the one in "Tempest." As peasant soldier, dashing officer, lover, prisoner and revolutionary he imbues his characterization with the fire and sincerity of his unrivaled histrionic ability.

"DESERT NIGHTS"
A realistically sustained terror and a grim suspense make "Desert Nights," John Gilbert's new film, which opened at the State Wednesday, a thing apart.

It tells a vivid and gripping story of three individuals at the mercy of the primitive wastes of an African desert. Writhing in anguish for the want of a little water, and suffering untold agonies of fear, these three are gripped in a veritable cry of terror. The film depicts their suffering and their fear with a startlingly dramatic realism and it also carries a most unusual love theme. Each of the three characterizations stand out in bold clear-cut lines.

Gilbert is seen in an entirely new and different role, that of a youthful diamond mine manager in the heart of dark Africa. His well-known features are masked in a black and heavy beard. Never before in his career has this star had such a forceful and thoroughly dramatic role in which to display his compelling personality.

Appearing first as the hard working, clean cut "boss" of a huge diamond mine engaging hundreds of dark-skinned natives, he is all business, but later as he is made a prisoner by a bogus stockholder and his confederates, his entire personality changes. The sensational and daring robbery, which it was humanly impossible for him to avert, implants within him a desire for revenge, and when the opportunity comes, as it does when they are all lost in the heart of a vast desert, he unfolds some strange and gripping drama that is as powerful.

STYLE EDICTS

Paris, April 4.—The long and short of the mode for smart women this spring is certainly expressed in the evening gown to be seen in all chic gatherings.

The place for the long point, as well as for the short one differs on different gowns, but the back dip is probably the favorite, often sweeping the floor in the back and gradually rising to the knees in front.

One dressmaker is hanging two long full panels from the back of the deep tightly-fitted yoke of a smart model in midnight-blue crepe satin. The plain front has a pleated fan of tulle in the same shade which is carried in narrow bands to the neck where it forms a transparent yoke at both the front and back of the bodice. Another in different shades of ruby tulle has a plain neckline and two-tiered skirt which forms circular ruffles at the back drooping nearly to the floor.

Another is showing a restrained elongation of the skirt on a charming gown of yellow satin. An eccentric decolletage and the off-center dip of the skirt at the back are balanced by a front decolletage low at the right side and a skirt that curves up in a long sweep at the left. Another in lame tissue has a two-tiered skirt with only the upper tier drooping a cascade of slender fullness down the back.

THE HOME KITCHEN

By Jeannette Young Norton

There's nothing wrong, dietetically speaking, about fruit cocktail as an entree. A snappy combination of grapefruit, orange, pineapple well chilled is refreshing and wholesome. But—when you find that nine out of ten dinner menus in this broad land of ours begin with fruit cup, and you patiently eat fruit cup because it seems impossible to avoid it, why, even this delicacy becomes monotonous.

An entree is supposed to stimulate appetite. It should, therefore, be interesting as well as peppy. When the family looks at a monotonous dish and hints, in the words of Moran and Mack, "Even if it is good, I don't like it," then it's time to give them a little change. A good entree is like a jolly welcome—it makes one look forward pleasantly to what is about to follow. If, in order to introduce variety, it's necessary to go to more than usual trouble or expense with the entree, makes less fuss over some other item.

Incidentally, entrees need not be expensive to be good. Caviar and truffles are not essential. By using a little imagination, the skillful cook can make a delightful entree out of what's in the icebox, and what can't be served as a left-over will receive a hearty welcome as an entree. Here are a few suggestions that may help:

Entrees

- 1—Canapes—Cut slices of bread into rounds with a large cookie cutter, or the metal top of a glass jar. Toast on one side. Then spread the other side with any of the following mixtures and heat under the broiler:
 - 1—Spread with butter, anchovy paste, and slice of tomato.
 - 2—Butter, slice of American or Swiss cheese, and a small bit of bacon.
 - 3—Flake sardines with a fork, add lemon juice, salt and pepper.
 - 4—Slice of tomato, anchovies, teaspoon of mayonnaise.

LEETONIA

The annual congregational meeting of the Presbyterian church was held Monday evening in the church.

At 6:30 p. m. an elaborate dinner was served in the dining room of the church, with covers being laid for 60.

Reports were given by the Sunday school secretary, the Christian Endeavor society, Young Ladies' society and Silver Circle.

Reports from the church officials showed every thing to be in a flourishing condition. The officers elected are: President, Peter McKissick; vice president, James S. Hall; secretary-treasurer, R. C. Harold; trustees, Ray Berger and Mrs. Eva S. G. Ashley. The pastor, Rev. J. D. McBride, gave an address.

An enjoyable affair was held Saturday evening when Sunday school class mates of Mrs. Joseph Stanyard, (nee) Miss Margaret Smith, a bride of recent date, held a miscellaneous shower at the home of Mrs. Stanyard's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles C. Smith. It was complete surprise for the honoree, who received a number of lovely gifts.

"My daughter had been falling in health for some time and although we tried everything recommended, all medicine failed to help her until she started the Konjola treatment." said Mrs. Nora Stuver, about her daughter, Miss Ruth Stuver, 403 Commercial Ave., New Philadelphia.

"For several years Ruth suffered from nervousness and a disordered stomach, that always caused gas bloating and belching spells just as soon as she finished eating. Sound sleep was denied her and she never had the pep and energy common among healthy children."

"Konjola had done wonders for her sister Jean, and so I gave it to Ruth. All her troubles vanished as if by magic. Once again her stomach is functioning normally. She sleeps soundly each night. Konjola has rebuilt her entire system and to such an extent that we can hardly believe she was ever in poor health. Konjola exceeded our fondest expectations and it is a pleasure to endorse it."

Strict Safety Code Sought To Prevent Sea Disasters

Government Experts Want No Repetition of Vestris
An Titanic Disasters; General Tightening of Laws Will Follow Meeting In England

Washington, April 4.—Remember the Titanic in 1912 and the Vestris in 1928.

This will be the watchword of America's representatives who next month will call to a conference in London the strictest code yet proposed as an international safety standard on the high seas.

Ships honeycombed with airtight compartments, compulsory radio equipment for the smallest vessels, and a general tightening of navigation law—these will be the demand of this group at Great Britain's International Safety conference April 16.

The meeting, planned in 1927, was called for revision of the 1914 convention for safety of life at sea, a pact agreed to by nations of the world as they recoiled in horror from the spectacle of the iceberg-scuttled Titanic with 1490 souls aboard.

Vestris Tragedy
New regulations were drawn, and new standards of construction set. But time passed, and ships grew bigger when the war came.

Cessation of hostilities and the fact all signatory nations were not adhering to terms of the 1914 agreement caused England to call another conference, for April, 1929.

Just as plans for the April meeting were perfected the world rocked to another tragedy. The Vestris, an English liner, floundered and 111 persons were drowned.

Since then work has been renewed, and now experts of the world have further perfected their devices for increasing the safety element on the ocean. Civil and departmental talent was kept busy working out means of preventing such disasters.

Proposals to be included in the United States demands at the conference were worked out by three committees, on construction, navigation, and communications.

Submit Reports
They will submit reports this week to the state department, through which a new safety agreement, or revision of the 1914 convention would be negotiated.

The construction committee, International News Service learned, will set out regulations to compel passenger liners to be constructed in an almost unsinkable manner. Under the committee proposals they would be in effect a series of compact boxes. A hole in one section would in no way effect the buoyancy of another. Cargo ships, however, would not have such stringent regulations imposed.

Stability will be taken into account, and the location of big and little compartments designed to prevent listing.

Communication experts in their studies decided many boats which should have been carrying powerful radio equipment. They recommend very stringent radio regulations for small boats.

The navigation committee devoted its time to a re-writing of laws of the sea. It will recommend new rules to prevent collisions and new regulations regarding destruction of derelicts, rotting ambassadors of death, charting their course by wind and swell alone.

Face Opposition
The American proposals are expected to face some opposition because of high costs of putting them into operation. Delegates will battle for their adoption, however, and they are backed up by a wave of public feeling which swept in the wake of news of the Vestris tragedy, officials said.

The American position is believed to have been strengthened, too, when congress passed the Jones law line bill, to establish safe loading capacities for all ships sailing to or from American ports. Delegates said they believe America desires safe seas at any cost.

Delegates to make the trip are headed by Rep. White, (R), of Maine, chairman of the house of representatives merchant marine committee.

BELOIT

The Easter service which was held at the Beloit Friends church Sunday morning at 9:45 o'clock, was well attended. They presented the Easter story, read by Mrs. F. C. Rice, with songs sang by a chorus, which was very impressive.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Daugherty and family moved from the Wm. Earley property to Alliance the first of this week.

Miss Rosalyn Morrison visited her parents who live at Fremont, O., over the week end and Miss Doris Pettit accompanied Miss Morrison and was her guest over the week end.

Mrs. Leon Neubrik of Detroit, and Mrs. P. C. French of Pittsburgh, are visiting their father, I. A. Courtney and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Courtney this week.

Mr. and Mrs. H. R. Isreal and children visited Mr. Isreal's parents Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Isreal at Youngstown, Sunday.

Miss Lucile Shreve who has been confined to her home for some time is improved and able to be out.

Mrs. L. S. McLaughlin and Mrs. Cora Burns were Canton visitors Sunday.

Miss Ruth Vonogel of Columbiana is visiting her uncle and aunt Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Gednetz.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Urison and Mrs. C. N. Dixon visited at Freeburg, Sunday.

New York—John W. Bickman has conducted a commercial livery stable for years, as did his father before him. His 60 remaining horses are to be auctioned. Gone are the days of the sleek carriage and sleigh horses. His only patrons have been a few laundry companies. He rides in an automobile himself.

"Buy Where Your Dollar Doubles"
31 MAIN SALEM, OHIO

Are you giving your child the

Do you not marvel when thinking of the inward physical workings of your child—bone, flesh, muscle and brain growing each day—building onward toward manhood or womanhood?

Of course it is the blood stream which carries the millions of tiny red-cells to all parts of the body. And it is the healthy, rich, red-blood-cells that does this building, warding off disease and making for strong and healthy bodies.

When a child's appetite wanes or he loses weight, the complexion becomes sallow or pimply and boils appear—then you instantly know that the inward mechanism is not working properly—that a good blood tonic is required.

In such cases S.S.S. is the proper tonic. It is made from fresh vegetable drugs—therefore will not harm the most delicate system. It improves the appetite and restores the red-blood-cells to normal; lost weight is regained; skin eruptions clear up and color returns to the cheeks.

Give your child the right chance to develop. You will not regret it in later years.

For more than 100 years S.S.S. has been helping children and their elders regain strength and vitality.

The seasoning and aging process, used in the manufacture of S.S.S., makes it pleasant to the taste.

All good drug stores sell S.S.S. in two sizes. Ask for the larger size. It is more economical.
